WASHINGTON CITY.

Nomination by the President.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—In Sherman is a senior member of the late banking firm of Sherman & Grant will be nominated on Monday as United States Marshal for New Mexico.

Venezuelan Claims Investigation.

The Times Washington special says the sub committee on foreign affairs of the House, consisting of Faulkner Springer and Monroe, began to-day an investigation of the charges of fraud in the settlement of the Venezuela claims. The charges are that the claims were largely exaggerated, and in some cases wholly fraudulent and that the commissioners who settled them were interested in the claims and received a certain percent of each claim allowed and that drafts for the payment of the claims allowed were made payable to bearer so as to facilitate a division of the proceeds. One witness only was examined to-day, and his testimony was of little importance except in giving the names of those who may possibly know something about the matter.

The Naval Investigation.

Another dispatch to the Times states that part of the naval investigation testimony which has taken at Philadelphia is printed. A careful examination of that part of the testimony now accessible shows that the arrangement of the naval investigation is to confine the charge of gross unfairness and limit delay. If the committee believes that the testimony which reflects upon Secretary Robeson was capable of explanation common decency demanded that he should be examined at once and given an opportunity to produce his rebutting testimony. Not to do this was to lay the committee fairly open to the suspicion that they desired to create a scandal rather than develope facts.

Still After Bristow.

The charges recently made against Bristow in relation to the mule contract are re-echoed by the World, which publishes the charges and specifies them in full and adds, it is said the cases under going a very thorough but private investigation by the Democratic members of the House of Representatives and that their intention is to keep the result very close until it is seen whether Bristow who was principal in the case is nominated at Cincinnati and then to let the whole matter will be brought out before the public. Whether this is true or not it would be well for Bristow to make public its complete authentic history and his relations to it.

Government Insane Asylum.

Rumors are current that the investigation in the government insane asylum is not so barren of results as some friends of that institution predicted. It is shown that Dr. Nichols wrote that Mrs Van Ness ought not receive a pension as she never sent cleaning or comforts to her son in the asylum side, by side with this letter were dozens of receipts from her of clothing dainties necessities &c signed by Nichols himself.

Louisiana Committee Still of Work.

It is now thought the Louisiana committee will be detained at New Orleans three days as long as was first thought.

Adjournment of Congress.

The Tribune's Washington special says: It is absolutely impossible to adjourn and finish all the business before the House by the 12th of June. In the Senate matters are still further behind hand. The impeachment question has not been considered by the favorers of adjournment besides it is understood that the majority in the Senate will not agree to the joint resolution. The Republicans have no idea of going away from Washington and allowing the scandal committee to send for witnesses during the campaign to their reports without an opportunity being offered to meet and explain them officially if necessary. A prominent Democratic Senator who has had an excellent opportunity to learn the temper of the Senate expressed the opinion last evening that Congress would not adjourn this year before the 15th of August. The misunderstanding between Edmunds and Conkling is still unhealed it is said to have broken out afresh and with increased bitterness during the impeachment trial.

Why is This Thus!

The Herald's Washington special says a good deal of remark is occasioned by the fact that while according to Governor Kellogg there are serious disturbances in Louisiana as grave as to lead him to urgently demand federal interference he only remains here but has with him, spending their time in Washington Wharton the attorney general of the State, Ayers deputy U. S. marshal the clerk of the metropolitan police force, which the Governor claims as still in use in any part of Louisiana and Badger, chief of police.

Another Impeach ent Threatened.

If the Senate shall decide it has jurisdiction Chandler intends to recommend the House the impeachment of Thompson one of his predecessors, who was Secretary of the Interior before the war. It is said he is preparing the case from the records of the public documents and the testimony in the Congress also. This shows that Thompson as secretary of the Interior, abstracted more than $500 000 of public money in the best securities and exchanging them for individual notes of contractors, and that was the last the government saw or heard of this immense sum, thus virtually stolen from the public treasury. Chandler says Thompson is now living and wealthy enough to be able to repay the amount to the government if and he should be made to do so.

Transfer of the Indian Bureau.

Allison doubts the passage by the Senate of the bill transferring the Indian bureau to the War Department. No canvass has yet been made but Chandler while in the Senate was favorable and is now hostile. The senators also are disinclined to give up that share of patronage.

Sinking Fund for the P. R. Rs.

A Times Washington dispatch says the Committee on Judiciary have agreed to the bill relative to the establishment of a sinking fund by the Pacific railroads to liquidate their indebtedness to the Government for monies advanced. The bill provides that the Union Pacific shall pay into the Treasury of the United States $50 000 per annum for ten years and after the expiration of that time $100 000 per annum thus accumulated with interest equals the amount advanced by the Government for the road under existing laws. The Central Pacific road to pay into the treasury an amount proportionate to the length of their line compared with that of the Union Pacific, and under similar conditions. The committee received no formal proposition from the roads in answer to the letter addressed to them but the general views of the companies are known and the committee is in hopes the terms of the bill will be accepted. It is manifestly for the advantage of the companies. It is well known that some provision should be made to pay the accumulating debts. The roads are in condition undoubtedly to begin the payment provided for by the bill, and if the bill is accepted the companies with out recourse to judicial proceedings. It will no doubtedly strengthen the stocks of all subordinary roads. The committee think however, they have drawn a bill that will bear the test of judicial examination and if so of course its passage would force the roads into compliance with its provisions. There is a strong desire to avoid any conflict between the government and the companies. The amount of interest already advanced by the government on the Pacific Bonds is $23 000, 000. The principal of the bonds on which this interest has been paid is nearly $64 000 000.

Report on Schenck.

It is probable the report of the committee on Schenck's case will be signed by all the members. The Republicans are willing to censure Schenck severely and the Democrats do not accuse him of corrupt intentions.

Louisiana Investigation.

The committee on Federal offices in Louisiana to-day continued the examination of G. W. Ferguson. Previous to the examination the minutes of the secret session yesterday were read by which it was shown that the committee had decided to meet in New Orleans Saturday May 27th. Ferguson testified that in September and October Gen. Sypher co-member of Congress gave him a bundle of pay rolls each voucher at that time being made out separately and asked witness to fill them with any names he chose. Witness filled up and signed fifty or sixty vouchers and returned them to say other who took them away and returned with a package of money paying witness a salary of $90 and giving him some money to give the others whose names he had signed on the vouchers. Witness kept him. He subsequently stated that he had signed 40 to 50 rolls and said he signed whatever name came into his mind. The money paid witness was not his salary for he was not then employed in the custom house. He was political striker. Sypher gave witness money for several persons. The money was put into envelopes in sums from $5 to $100 and handed to witness who gave them to the parties designated by Sypher. No names were filled on top of the vouchers and no sum of money was title that the time witness signed the vouchers. The rolls were then blank when signed and the amounts were all put in afterwards. The money was paid for election purposes. The parties were Democrats and liberal Republicans and they were expected to support the ticket composing speeches made. Witness did not know that the rolls were padded. He had seen Sypher with rolls drawn from the custom house owing to Sypher's having the rolls and not taking them away and returning with the money. A telegram from Collector Casey was received saying he had the records of the office to show that McCarthy had drawn one month's and forty five thousand dollars in March 1874 and paid in instead of laboring on a hundred and forty five men had been paying duty on 400 are owing to the testimony of Ferguson. McCarthy telegraphed the committee to the same effect as Casey. Joseph D. Bruno of New Orleans telegraphed the contradiction of Ferguson's testimony relating to cigars and another telegram was received from Massachusetts announcing the eight testimony absolutely and ridiculously false. He was answered that the statement in the dispatch was false and it was expected that the witness would make all possible explanation of his fraudulent connection with any frauds.

The witness was asked if any one had seen him yesterday and he said, that some one came to him and told that ex Senator Carpenter wanted to see him and he went to see him last night. Carpenter asked him if his statement about Billingham was true and witness said it was. Carpenter said if it was true then he would wash his hands of Billing ham. Witness then told other and similar stories of cigar frauds and the committee adjourned.

Opposition to the Abolition of Navy Yards.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—A California delegation has arrived to combine with other Representatives opposed to the recent navy yard appointments of the leading appropriation bill and expect to defeat the naval committee's proposition for reducing Mare Island to a mere naval rendezvous and station for temporary repairs. The appropriation committee do not concur in this proposition but provide for continuing Mare Island on its present footing.

Payment of Silver from the Treasury.

Orders have been issued from the Treasury in directing the Assistant Treasurer at New York and Boston to disburse $700 000 in silver each in payment of government checks in addition to the amounts heretofore authorized.

No More Fast Mail Trains.

The proposition for a liberal reduction in the appropriation for mail service on horse and steamboat routes was withdrawn before the House passed the special appropriation bill. Unless the senate amendments are agreed to, all fast mail service must cease and free delivery in small cities suspended.

Legislation in Land Patent Cases.

There is much difference of opinion here on the question whether further legislation is required to secure patents to settlers as against jumpers on lands within the limits of railroad grants and that were claimed under Mexican grants which were subsequently rejected as invalid. Page thinks it unnecessary to do anything as does also the Interior Department has not allowed any declaratory statements to be filed on such lands while the question of the validity of any Mexican grants was pending. Wigginton, however asserts that many such filings have been allowed and unless settlers who have based their titles upon these improved foundations hasten to file new declarations within the ninety days' priority offered them by general law their lands and improvements are liable to be jumped. He says the Leland grant is all covered by declaratory statements thus illegally filed in there, for the introduced and will press his bill which will no doubt secure all bona fide settlers leaving nothing open for controversy.

Piper's earliest speech on the Chinese question has added to the impression upon Congress made by Sargent and Mitchell's efforts. He was especially effective in showing the helplessness of the California state authority to protect their people against the debasing and destructive evils now finally imposed by imported coolies and criminals and that there is no effectual remedy except by the modification of the Burlingame treaty.

Report on the Fur Seal Contract.

It is reported that the sub committee of Ways and Means investigating the Alaska Commercial Company will report sustaining the company and its contract also that this report will be combated in the full committee.

Reported Reciprocity Treaty with Mexico.

Representative Reagan denies that he has agreed to report favorably a bill for a reciprocity treaty with Mexico. He has unable to give the subject attention, but will investigate it soon.

Exit Pitzhugh.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The committee on rules have agreed to report Fitzhugh as improper door keeper of the House and will recommend that the offices of sergeant-at-arms and doorkeeper be consolidated.

Powder Mill Explosion.

WILMINGTON, May 20.—An explosion occurred this morning at Hagan's mill, killing four men, named Patrick McKinney, Amos Carter Frederick Doughty and Patrick Dougherty.

Bill to Amend the Pacific R. R. Act.

A bill was reported in the House to-day by Lawrence from the committee on the judiciary to amend the Pacific Railroad act of July 1 1862 and was on his motion ord red printed and recommitted. It provides, in the first section that it is Secretary of the Treasury shall at all times withhold payment of any moneys due from the United States to any railroad company which has received any grant of land or gift or credit whether the money so due be reasonably delayed or not, to the amount of any or all claims due from such company to the United States.

That in any action or proceeding brought in pursuance of law by any such company against the United States any claim or demand of the United States against such company may at the election of the United states be set off and pleaded as such claim may be made subject of separate action in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Sec 3 provides that all claims and demands due the United States from any such company, if payment is unreasonably withheld shall bear interest at 6 per cent per annum from the time such claims become due.

P. R. Co. Company on its own account and for its several branches shall during the period of 10 years from and after the first day of July 1876 pay annually into the treasury of the United States the sum of $737,000, to be paid one half on July 1st and the other half on January 1st in each of said years and during each and every year commencing with the expiration of said ten years said U. Sec 5 The Secretary of the Treasury is to retain, to the best advantage, the money collected under this act.

Sec 6 provides for suits against the railroad company failing to comply with the provisions of this act. It directs the Attorney General to institute suits and gives the cases precedence over all others. Sec 7 makes it unlawful for such railroad company director or officer to declare any dividend from its earnings or profits so long as such company is sixty days in default of payments under this act. Any person receiving such dividend shall be liable to refund the same to the United States and any suit filed by the United States for the whole amount of such dividend.

Sec 9 provides that this remedy herein provided shall not be exclusive of any existing remedy or impair any other remedy heretofore existing in favor of the United States nor shall anything in the bill affect any pending suit instituted under the act of March 3 1874 nor shall it impair the right of Congress to alter amend or repeal this or any other act relating to such railroad company, nor shall it impair any right existing by law under the first mortgage bonds issued under the act of July 2 1874.

Bristow Gaining Strength.

The outside pressure for Bristow as Republican presidential nominee evidently grows stronger daily. This fact with the positives votes in convention already secured gives him a better chance for nomination than has heretofore appeared. The machine managers are against him but that will not help him. The machine managers have failed in their efforts to nominate either of their respective rivals. It is conceded that Bristow would be a strong candidate before the people if nominated because he would command the Republican party outside the independent reformers besides. The trouble about his nomination is from the enmity of those better known as statesmen second rate politicians. Blaine's friends continue confident, and despite controversy the views of the Republican managers seem narrowing down to his nomination or Bristow's either of whom would catch the hunting vote better than any others named. Conkling Morton and Hayes all lacking that element of strength. New Jersey's sentiment for Blaine is not heavily. Reasons are published that Blaine is receiving from the Democratic managers of this state in order to secure his election, the only evidence offered on this point being merely hearsay.

Bills were introduced and referred as follows By Kelly, of Oregon for the relief of certain claimants under the donation land law of Oregon, approved Sept 29 1850 referred to the committee on public lands. By Mitchell, of Oregon, to establish post routes from Astoria to Fort Stevens and from Silver Lake to Fossil in Oregon referred to the committee on postoffices and post roads.

Patterson presented the memorial of the Charleston (S. C.) chamber of commerce remonstrating against the removal of the duty on rice, as provided for in the Hawaiian treaty, referred to the committee on finance.

Mitchell of Oregon, called up the Senate bill for the relief of M. B. Tyler and E. H. Luckett, with the message of the President vetoing the same. The bill authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury to pay to persons named $166, money wrongfully collected in the second district of Kentucky, fees for keeper of bonded warehouse. The question being, shall the bill pass notwithstanding the objections of the President? it was determined in the affirmative Yeas 46, nays none.

The Senate went into secret session on the question of jurisdiction in the impeachment matter.

Boutwell took the floor and spoke in opposition to the Senate taking jurisdiction in the case.

At 5:45 P. M., before reaching any decision the doors were reopened, and the senate adjourned until Monday.

The House passed a resolution offered by House of Massachusetts requiring committees or ... having claims ... before House committees to ... and while ... reported by counsel to other persons, with the clerk of the House, evidence showing that such persons have authority to represent them. This is a direct blow at lobbyists, and will save the members from being annoyed by them.

The Speaker laid before the House the ... tion of W. H. Barnum as ... senative from Connecticut and it was entered on the journal and accepted.

The Speaker announced the following members as composing the committee of investigation of the official conduct of the clerk of the House: Kenny of Ohio Forney of Alabama Marsh of Pennsylvania, Wayt, of Connecticut, and Harrison of Illinois. The House then went into committee of the whole Poltymer in the chair on the naval appropriation bill and a number of speeches were made upon the subject viz: The proposed abolition of certain navy yards.

Blount of Georgia, who has charge of the bill moved to reduce the appropriations for the pay of the navy from $20,000,000 to $17,000,000 and that the allowance to officers for mileage of eight cents per mile agreed to.

Lawrence of Ohio from the judiciary committee reported a bill to amend the charter of the Pacific Railroad companies referred to the committee of the whole.

Hawkins of New York, was excused from service on the Louisiana investigation committee. The House at 5 o'clock adjourned.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Funeral of the Murdered Consuls.

LONDON, May 13.—The funeral of the murdered consuls took place at Salonica to-day with great ceremony and in a manner satisfactory to every one. Perfect order was preserved.

A Paris dispatch says it is expected that the widows of the murdered consuls will each receive two hundred thousand dollars indemnity.

Another Massacre of Christians.

A special dispatch from Paris says a report has been received there that the Mussulman inhabitants of Pludesi in Bosnia under the pretext that a number of Christians were about to quit the town attacked the Christian quarter and massacred one hundred persons including women and children. The Turkish troops afterward occupied the place and made numerous arrests.

England's Refusal.

COLOGNE, May 20.—Intelligence from London published here, gives as the reason for England's refusal to adhere to the memorandum of the Berlin conference that the proposals require from the Porte what is simply impossible and that England wishes to remain unfettered in whatever course future events may take. It is added that England however will not advise the Sultan to reject the proposal.

Interference of Austria.

LONDON, May 20.—A Berlin dispatch says that notwithstanding the pacific result of the Berlin conference the Austrian government is prepared for warlike preparations. Among its latest measures is the arrangement for trains for wounded and sick soldiers on various railroads. This seems to justify the conclusion that if no settlement is effected on the basis of the Berlin programme Austria rather than allow Servia and Montenegro to stir up war indefinitely will either interfere herself or enable Turkey to interfere.

European Grain Market.

The grain trade is firmer and prices slightly improved. The continuance of dry weather, as regards crops and direction of the wind, prevented arrivals on the coast yesterday leaving the Exchange scantily supplied with English wheat, which readily commanded an advance of one shilling. Flour and foreign wheat are held for 6d@1s advance, but business is slack and buyers are holding off. Imports last week of wheat, flour, barley, and peas were moderate and arrivals of maize heavy. Deliveries of English wheat were 4,489 quarters, against 6 287 for the corresponding week of 1875. Average prices of English wheat for the harvest 38s. 6d., 37s. 6d. In Paris, wheat advanced to 56s 6d per quarter the country markets of France being dearer. At Mark Lane holders of wheat refuse former terms decidedly, but would sell at an advance which they cannot obtain. Flour firm, barley and oats a shade dearer, and maize and feeding stuff steady.

English Stock Exchange.

LONDON, May 20.—The exchange during the past week has been mainly abnormal in the foreign settlement and very little business has been transacted. Large quantities of gold continue, owing to the absence of any export demand to flow into the Bank of England and there exists a plentiful supply of floating capital awaiting profitable employment. To-day foreign securities are generally flat, owing to an increased uneasy feeling in ... the ... question. Egyptian and Turkish stocks have receded considerably. English securities are quiet, and Americans are without movement.

Foreign Markets.

LONDON, May 20.—Mincing Lane markets have experienced no important change during the week although some articles are steady, and coffee has advanced 2s6d shillings per cwt. Sugar inactive and unchanged, common grades of Congo tea sold at lower rates; rice is firm and has advanced 3 pence per cwt; spices show some further recovery from the late depression.

MADRID, May 20.—Prime Minister Canovas De Castillet presented a bill in the Senate to-day abolishing the forces in the northern provinces. The first clause of the bill imposes almost universal military service. The second clause authorizes the government to take further steps should the provinces refuse to furnish their number of men for military service. The third clause requires that the new proper shall pay taxes in proportion to their means.

... Suicide.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—Mrs John G. May, aged about 70 years, died a few days ago and was buried a few hours after ... by Dr. R. L. Pinching, who attended her, reported at the health office that she died of old age and infirmities. Some circumstances led to the belief that the matter needed investigation, and an officer was detailed to work it up, who brought to light the following facts. About noon last Saturday, John F. Lang, tockesmith, 134 Folk street, was requested to visit a dwelling 1850 Larkin street, and open a door. He found the door in question locked, with the key on the inside. He soon succeeded in turning the bolt of the lock. On opening the door, he was horrified to see an elderly woman lying upon the floor of the bathroom, fully dressed, with her throat cut from ear to ear, and near her feet lay a carving knife besmeared with blood, with which the deed had been done. To all appearances the woman was dead. Mr Lang, however, raised her head and summoned the household. Dr. Pinching was sent for. He found on examination that the woman was not dead. With the assistance of the locksmith, the wounds were stitched together the operation occupying about an hour. During the process of dressing the wound, the patient moved several times but did not appear to be conscious. About 1 o'clock Sunday night Mrs. May died and was buried next day. The inmates of the house where the body was found were the husband of the deceased, John G. May, a lady whose name is not given, and a servant girl. Mr Lang suggested that the police authorities be notified of the circumstance to avoid trouble, but he was requested not to mention the matter to any person. It appears that the husband of the deceased is a wealthy gentleman, retired from business, and that he lamented his wife in every wish. It is stated by the neighbors of the locality, that Mrs May visited Mason street synagogue Saturday ...

We refer to these cases not for the pur... ...of censuring the children, for of ... ...they could not appreciate the dan... ...they put themselves in, but to call the ... ...ion of their parents to the fact that ... ...child should be allowed to run any ... ...risks, and should be prevented from ... ...so. Upon inquiry he found that the child who ran in front of the locomotive on Fourth street lived in the neighborhood, and that he was in the habit of running on the track in front of the locomotive. If ...ild be run over, his parents would ...ve the conductor and engineer and ...e the company for damages, which a jury would probably award in full measure. But it is evident that the blame would not rest upon the shoulders of the train men, but upon the parents themselves. It is no excuse to say parents have no time to watch children, or that they cannot control them. Children are watched and controlled elsewhere, and could be here too, if a due sense of their responsibility was felt by the parents. More is required of them than simply to give life and food and clothing to their offspring. The common schools will impart a certain amount of education, but the duty of parents to their children is grossly neglected if the children are not taught the old fashioned virtues of respect and obedience, and these can never be taught if the children are allowed to do as they please, incur any danger they may be bold or foolish enough to dare, and pass their youth in lounging about the streets in worse than idleness. There has been much complaint about the hoodlums; but many of the boys who are so called are hardly to be blamed for being rude, depraved, reckless and lawless. They have never been taught manners, morals, prudence or respect for law. The censure should rest with the parents, who are so indifferent as to allow their babies to run wild in the streets and grow up subjected to such influences as must inevitably make hoodlums of them.

MR. NEWBURY DECLINES TO BE A CANDIDATE.

We are sorry to have to announce that Mr. W. S. Newbury declines to stand as a candidate for the Legislature. The Convention nominated him in his absence and without previous consultation with him, and his nomination was received by the people as one of the best made by the Convention. It will be generally regretted that the demands of Mr. Newbury's business do not permit him to give the necessary time and attention to the service of the public as a legislator; but it is the right of every citizen to determine for himself whether he can afford to be thus called away from his private affairs. No man can be reasonably required to sacrifice his business for the public service, unless in a great public crisis.

Mr. Newbury has sent to the Central Committee the following letter declining to be a candidate:

PORTLAND, May 18, 1876.

To Joseph Simon, Esq., Chairman of Multnomah County Republican Central Committee—DEAR SIR: I have been informed that during my absence at Salem ... was nominated by the Republican county convention as one of their candidates for the Legislature. I am constrained by every sense of duty to myself to decline this nomination. While I believe it is the duty of every citizen to cheerfully serve the public in any capacity his countrymen may call him to act, (when it can be done consistent with his duty to himself,) recent business arrangements entered into between myself and other parties have rendered it impossible for me to divert any portion of my time from that business; were it otherwise, I would accept this action of the convention as binding upon me.

I shall cheerfully support the ticket and do what I can by all honorable means to secure its election, especially as at this time I believe the issues to be of vital importance.

Hoping that this act on my part may occasion the party no inconvenience, I subscribe myself, very respectfully,

W. S. NEWBURY.

PORTLAND, May 18, 1876.

To the Republican County Committee—GENTLEMEN: I have the honor to state that circumstances not entirely considered at the time I was nominated as a representative, and which make it impossible for me to fill the honorable position without serious detriment to myself, constrain me to decline the nomination, and to request that you place upon the ticket in my stead, a gentleman who may be equally acceptable to the party as myself.

Thanking the gentlemen who comprised the Convention for the honor of the nomination, and assuring them that this action on my part is not from a wish to shrink from duty, and assuring them further that the ticket shall receive my hearty support, and of my belief in its triumph,

I am very respectfully,

LE F. A. SHAW.

PORTLAND, May 20, 1876.

Two vacancies having occurred upon the Republican Legislative ticket for Multnomah county by the declination of Mr. W. S. Newbury and Mr. Le F. A. Shaw, the Republican County Committee hereby nominate to fill said vacancies, Hon. J. M. Scott and Hon. Wm. Cornell.

In selecting these gentlemen, who are at present incumbents of the same office, and whose public and private character and fitness for the position is all that can be desired, the committee feel that they have in a great measure relieved themselves of the responsibility thus unexpectedly devolved upon them and have reflected the will of the party.

JAMES LOTAN,
JOSEPH SIMON,
J. N. SAUNDERS,
County Committee.

THE COUNTY TICKET.

The Republicans may congratulate themselves upon having a ticket composed of sound, capable and discreet men, who, if elected, as they will be, will discharge the duties of their respective offices satisfactorily to the people at large and acceptably to their electors. It is such a ticket as all members of the Republican party can take right hold of, support and elect. There is not a man on it who does not stand well in the estimation of the community, and who is not known to be straight-forward and reliable. We do not overstate the case when we say that in point of ability, standing and fitness, it is quite equal to any other like ticket ever presented to the voters of the county for their suffrages. We therefore trust that all Republicans will unite heartily and faithfully in completing the good work now commenced, by electing their ticket by a good majority.

REST.

Dr. A. J. C. Skene has recently written an admirable article on the "Forgotten Art of Repose" from which we propose to make some extracts. The doctor begins by showing that we cannot use all our faculties at one time. He says: "We stand on foot and rest the other; listen with one ear and then the other; look with one eye while the other is loafing; walk until we get tired, then sit down to rest; and when weary of an easy chair we get up and take a walk to stretch our limbs. We talk until our tongues are tired, and then stop to think of what we will say next. So we go on throwing one set of wheels out of gear to let them cool off and get oiled up, while we set another portion of the machine running. Even in sleep, in which we come the nearest to complete rest, we are still partly hard at work."

The Democrats have presented their ticket. Some of the nominations are good, some are "fair to middling," and some are bad. The ticket, as a whole, has not been enthusiastically received, but has been quite as well received as it deserved to be. If the Democracy had been in earnest in their talk about carrying Multnomah county, they would have made a different ticket, as it can hardly be supposed they could hope to succeed with their present nominations. There are a few gentlemen among their selections who command the confidence of the people and would command the full strength of the party were they not loaded down with the weight of others who are unsatisfactory to Democrats and distasteful to the class of voters who think less of party organization than of personal qualifications.

Charles Brown vs D D Kelley J and H H Field master and mate of the bark Thorndyke Libel for injury to a seaman In this case the court found that the libellant had been severely beaten and injured being once struck with the capstan bar on the right fore arm, while warding a blow from his head, so as to severely injure, if not fracture it during the voyage from Philadelphia to Sitka, besides being subjected to some gross and outrageous indignities at the hands of the second mate The court held that the master was liable to libellant for the injuries he received, because it was his duty as the master of the ship, to have taken care of him and to have seen that he was not abused and imposed upon by the second mate The court gave a decree against the master for $600 The court held the mate was not responsible for the injuries to the libellant; except so far as he directly contributed to them or participated in them, and gave a decree against him for $200

The fall of snow at Cariboo has been very heavy this season but below that point is very much as usual We have not learned if the spring has been warm comparatively in that section because if so there will be no heavy floods. If, on the contrary, the spring is cold up there we may look for high water in the Fraser river about July.

OUR TERRITORIES

John F Willis has been chosen town marshal of Olympia

The Orcas Island lime quarries appear to be doing a thriving trade They ship a great deal of lime to Victoria and Portland besides supplying the demand for that article on the Sound

The Olympia Transcript says Discoveries of coal continue the last being near the source of the Stuck river on White river on what is known as the Muckleshoot Indian reservation and said to be of good quality and ample quantities

George Gelbach, of the Upper Tumwater mills, received 10,000 pounds of barley by the last steamer from San Francisco this week and also ten tons of wheat from Portland Mr Talbot's flour and feed are much in demand for their excellence and good quality

The annual meeting of the ladies of the Presbyterian society of Olympia was held on Friday the 19th, when the following officers were elected Mrs W F Crosby, president; Mrs. S. Coulter, vice president Mrs J W Waughop, treasurer, Mrs C H Hale secretary.

The Henry Wilson Monumental Association of Olympia is doing at the post at Vancouver [illegible] very evening. About $150 have been raised at this place. We are gratified to learn that the movement is spreading through out the entire army of the country General [illegible] is the treasurer of this department

They were plump, good [illegible] fellows, and will help to augment the [illegible] of many a John Bull in the British [illegible]

The Walla Walla Union says "We saw on Thursday morning passing up Main street an Indian and woman There is nothing particularly strange in this except that the woman was carrying four fifty pound sacks of oats on her back while her lord and master walked behind her proudly—carrying one sack She could easily have carried the fifth sack had there been room on her back for it Degrading as it was for the lord condescended, under the circumstances, to carry one sack for her"

The Oregon Farmer says In the face of a general report of scarcity of salmon thus far this season, we have the consoling reflection that a greater number of cases packed have been shipped, up to this date than for a corresponding period of time last year There is this difference, however relative to the packing: Last year but a portion of the established factories on the river were operating so early, this season all are actively employed with the addition of four new large establishments, and the remainder with increased facilities, aggregating a capacity much in excess of former demands, which does not lessen the catch by any means, but on the other hand, greatly increases it

A Hebrew gentleman had a legacy left to him, but it was hampered with an unfortunate condition which he hastened to announce to a sympathizing friend The sum was ten thousand pounds, but half the sum according to the testator's wishes was to be placed in his coffin and buried with him Was there ever such a waste of good money? But the sympathizer was equal to the occasion Where is the money now? he asked, and was told "in the bank" "All right," he said "you write a check for £5 000, and put it in the old boy's coffin, drawn to order" That young man ought to get on in the world.

Local finances are working quite smoothly with out any new features of special importance The banks are not doing a large business but still the volume of transactions foots up quite creditably There is an increased demand for business purposes confined principally however to the salmon and wool trade which have shown an increased movement during the past few days All the prime commercial paper offering is still freely taken at current rates and loans are secured on first class real estate security without difficulty at 1 per cent per month The reports of dull times which reach us through the press from the Eastern states and Europe have a strong tendency to render us satisfied with the commercial condition of our own country Many journals in the United States are attributing the difficulties to the financial policy of the government In Europe it is claimed that investors are suffering heavily by the decline of government and other securities The London Economist says that the obligations of Turkey Egypt and Peru alone show a reduction in their market value of $5 000 000 within the last twelve months and there is too much reason to expect that the value of those stocks will still further deteriorate But this is by no means the limit of the report loss on government securities By comparing London prices of last month with those of April 1875 we find losses to have occurred through depreciation within the last year on other securities than those above alluded to to the amount of over $17 000 000 It thus appears that within the short period of twelve months there has been a decline in the market value of government obligations aggregating about $500 000 000

The amount of fractional currency outstanding on the 1st of each month of this year according to the monthly report of the Secretary of the Treasury was as follows

January 1 1876	$44 147,000
February 1	45 968,400

Oregon Grains.

The best judges who have examined the wheat and oats raised in Oregon uniformly pronounce them of the very finest quality to be obtained in any known country in the world and all felt sure that the specimens sent to the Centennial Exposition would attract much attention This is already known to be true as the following extract from a letter to T J Matlock of this city from a large milling firm in Craigsville Orange county New York, will show The letter is dated May 6 and says

Mr A J Dufur Centennial Commissioner refers me to you for quotations Please mail me sample of the very finest white wheat and largest grained oats in your market and quote the price for one ezmo, also inform me the cost per car load of freight for the same, to come by the Erie Railroad also the cost by sail vessel to New York the grain to be delivered on board ship in bags or cars in bulk, free of charges for cartage or bags to us We will need about 1 000 bushels per month of each if the prices and freight do not make it come too high at our mills.

The above shows that our Oregon grain is not suffering by comparison with that raised in New York, or in the United States in fact, and that with freights at a sufficiently low figure we would be able to furnish the denizens of the American metropolis with a finer article of breadstuffs than they are accustomed to Mr Matlock will take all the necessary steps to ascertain the practicability of opening up a new trade for this State in the direction named We hope it will lead to advantageous results

ARK TERRITORIES

John P Willis has been chosen town marshal of Olympia

The Orcas Island lime quarries appear to be doing a thriving trade They ship a great deal of lime to Victoria and Port Ariland besides supplying the demand for that article on the Sound

The Olympia Transcript says Discoveries of coal continue the last being near the source of the Stuck river on White river on what is known as the Muckleshoot Indian reservation and said to be of good quality and ample thickness

George Gelbach of the Upper Tumwater mills received 10 000 pounds of barley by the last steamer from San Francisco this week and also ten tons of wheat from Portland Mr Gelbach s flour and feed are much in demand for their excellence and good quality

The annual meeting of the ladies of the Unitarian society of Olympia was held on Friday the 19th when the following officers were elected Mrs W F Crosby president Mrs S Coulter vice president Mrs J W Waughop treasurer Mrs C H Hale secretary

The Henry Wilson Monumental Association held a meeting at the post at Vancouver on Wednesday evening About $150 have been raised at this post We are gratified to learn that the movement is spreading through out the entire army of the country General Ewing is the treasurer of this department

The Sprague says Last week Mr Wm Many brought into Walla Walla direct from Kentucky two fine blooded stallions, very handsome animals They are brought to sell Each is valued at $6 000 and the other at $3 000 This looks like a good healthy price yet such investments frequently prove very remunerative

Two years ago last Monday, Guy Fruit, of Walla Walla, took the endeavor to head off his own which he was driving, by leaping suddenly over his head to the ground, but not easily mastered The horse struck a badger hole and broke its neck A little more than a little before this occurrence Guy lost a horse by choking

D D Clarke, civil engineer was engaged last week surveying a line for the extension of the Northern Pacific railroad northward along the beach, from the present terminus at New Tacoma to a point in Central Tacoma the boundary line of Old Tacoma Dr Clarke and have been laid out and all the necessary work on paper made for completing the road The length of the line is about

Logging camp of Messrs Pruit & Bell situated on Oyster Bay, near Olympia, is, probably, the largest and best ox in a four Over was killed in the following manner Mr Chas F Huntley states that while hauling a log on a down hill grade, the ox and neight one of his horns under a manner as to throw him, all in a ing his neck instantly

The Dalles Inland says "Three hundred and forty-six fat wether sheep from Umatilla county came down on the cars last Monday They were purchased by Geo Brickley, at $2 from Senator Jewell and were destined for Chicago As they had just been sheared, and each fleece is worth not less than $2, it is evident that Mr Jewell has made a fair profit off them They were plump good looking fellows and will help to augment the rotundity of many a John Bull in the British Provinces"

The Mountaineer says We saw on Thursday morning passing up Main street an Indian man and woman There is nothing particularly strange in this except that the woman was carrying four fifty pound sacks of flour strapped on her back while her lord and master the buck—proudly walked in advance, carrying one sack She could easily have carried the fifth sack had there been room on her back for it Degrading as it was the buck condescended under the circumstances, to carry one sack for her

The Astorian says In the face of a general complaint of scarcity of salmon thus far the present season, we have the consoling reflection that a greater number of cases packed have been shipped up to this date than for a corresponding period of time last year There is this difference however relative to the packing Last year but a portion of the established factories on the river were operating so early this season all are actively employed with the addition of four new large establishments, and the remainder with increased facilities aggregating a capacity much in excess of former demands which does not lessen the catch by any means but, on the other hand greatly increases it

A Hebrew gentleman had a legacy left to him but it was hampered with an unfortunate condition which he hastened to announce to a sympathizing friend The sum was ten thousand pounds but half the sum according to the testator s wishes was to be placed in his coffin and buried with him Was there ever such a waste of good money" But the sympathizer was equal to the occasion Where is the money now" he asked and was told in the bank All right, he said you write a check for 10,000 and put it in the old boy s coffin drawn to order That young man ought to get on in the world

Local Loans are working pleasantly with out any new feature of special importance the banks are lending a large business Upon the volume of transactions no data up quite accurately There is an increase I hear I for the purposes confined principally however to the finer mon and wool trade which have shown an enlarged current during the past few days All the prime commercial paper Portland is still freely taken at current rates and loans are made on first class real estate security without difficulty at 1 per cent per month The reports of failures which reach us through the press from the Eastern states and Europe have a steadying influence as with the commercial condition of the own country Many journals in the United States are attributing the difficulties of the financial policy of the government In Europe it is claimed that investors are suffering heavily by the decline of government and other securities The London Economist says that the obligations of Turkey Egypt and Peru alone show a reduction in their market value of $ 2 00 00 000 in the last twelve months and there is too much reason to expect that the value of those stocks will still further deteriorate But this is by no means the limit of the recent loss on government securities By comparing London prices of last month with those of April 18 we find I see to have occurred the right description within the last year on other securities than those above alluded to to the amount of over $1 000 000 It thus appears that within the short period of twelve months there has been a decline in the market value of government obligations aggregating about $400 000 000

Oregon Grains.

The best Judges who have examined the wheat and oats raised in Oregon uniformly pronounce them of the very finest quality to be obtained in any known country in the world In fact it is the universal comment of the Centennial Exposition would attract much attention if shipped to Philadelphia An extract from a letter to T J Matlock of this city from a large milling firm in Craigsville Orange county New York will show The letter is dated May and says

Mr A J Dufor Centennial Commissioner for Oregon called on us Thursday last and left with us a sample of the very finest white wheat Flour ground from oats in the market and sold in the present state the same also from the cost per car load the freight for the same to come by the Erie Railroad also the cost I shall need to New York which is to be delivered on board ship in bags or car in bulk free of charges for cartage or bags to us We will need about 1 000 bushels per month of each if the prices and freight do not make it come too high at our mills

The above shows that our Oregon grain is not suffering by comparison with that raised in New York or in the United States in fact and that with its gifts at a sufficiently low figure we would be able to furnish the denizens of the American metropolis with a finer article of breadstuffs than they are accustomed to Mr Matlock will take all the necessary steps to ascertain the practicability of opening up a new trade for this State in the direction named We hope it will lead to advantageous results
